

Date.	Town.	Place.
Mar. 11. 1894	Birmingham.	Westminster Road.
Mar. 24. 1901.	London.	New Court.
Aug. 23. 1908	"	Westminster Chapel
Nov. 24. 1942	"	"

mod. print 189
 .ratione
 H. III. mit A

000.

000.

2 TIMOTHY.3:4. "Traitors".

INTRODUCTION.

The last known letter of Paul.

The Epistle is largely personal, there being no less than 23 proper names.

A mingling of Joy and Sorrow.

The forsaking of old friends.

The dangers ahead.

Anxiety for Timothy.

Perilous Times.

The dark catalogue of evil things.

This one word, "traitors" suggests the peril to the Kingdom that we would consider.

A. DEFINITION OF TREACHERY.

I. The Word. "Traitors"

i. One who surrenders a position to the enemy.

ii. Examples. The only ones.

a. Luke 6:16. By Luke. Of Judaea.

b. Acts 7:52. By Stephen. Of the Nation.

II. The Fact.

i. An enemy inside. "Law..kept it not".
"Form denying power"

ii. Name without Nature.

Creed without Conduct.

Doctrine without Duty.

iii. The Livery of the Kingdom.

Disobedience to Government.

A Vantage for the foe.

III. The Method. (see over) →

III. The Method.

i. The Oath broken.

The Cross denied.

The King refused.

ii. Usurpation.

Self enthroned.

Satan's representative.

iii. League with the enemy.

a. Purpose.

"Making void the commandment of God."

b. Effort.

Toleration of Evil.

Compromise.

Submission.

B. THE EXPRESSION AND ROOT OF TREACHERY.

I. The Expression. The darkling List.

i. First Method of Examination of TRAITORS.

Three Groups.

a. The Character. Self Lovers.
Money Lovers.

b. The Conduct. Boastful.
Haughty.
Railers.

a. The Character. Unfilial.
Unthankful.
Unholy.

b. Conduct. Unloving.
Implacable.
Slanderers.

a. Character. Uncontrolled.
Fierce.
No lovers of God.

b. Conduct. Headstrong.
Puffed up.

ii. Or take another Method.

a. Personal. Self-lovers. Money-lovers.

Unfilial, unthankful. Unholy. Uncontrolled. Fierce. No lovers of God.

b. Social. Boastful. Haughty. Railers

Unloving. Implacable. Slanderers.

Headstrong. Puffed up.

II. The Root.

Revealed.

"Lovers of pleasure more than lovers of God."

"Having form of godliness."

III. The Effect.

Harm to the Kingdom .

The KING untouched.

The Kingdom hindered/.

C. THE PUNISHMENT OF TREACHERY.

I. Suicide.

Every traitor his own executioner.

The broken Oath..Death.

II. Folly manifest.

<sup>in</sup>
James and Jambres.

III. The Hell of a God-made man is Anarchy

CONCLUSION.

The KING.

The greatest enemies are the traitors.

Quit the form, or deny the power no longer

The Cross.

The outcome of treachery.

There is but one remedy, that you share in its death.