

The Sermon on the Mount.

The Code.

... in the future. ...
... the thing was proved to declare in the
... of this ...
... will deal with ...
... of ...

- 1. the thing
- 2. subject
- 3. character
- 4. influence
- 5. LAW

Lessons.

- 1. Gen. XLIX: 8-12
- 2. Matt. V: 17-20.

Hymns.

- 184. "Join all the glorious names"
- 168. "Beyond the glittering starry skies"
- 172. Con. 4. 14. "O the delights, the heavenly joys"
- Chant 126.
- Anthem 6.

A. Towards the future.

- i. Recognizing its divinity.
- ii. The destruction - the building - the lot on the hill.
- iii. Building - that is to fall up. LAW + PROPHETS.
- iv. The principles of the old.

The Sermon on the Mount.

222

Inward etc on the Code } { Matt v. 17-20.
the Code } { Rom: X. 1-4

Introductory.

The King now proceeds to declare in the hearing of His disciples the laws of the Kingdom.

Note carefully the position of this Code.

1. The King.
2. Subjects.
3. Character.
4. Influence.
5. LAW.

He has no law to declare to the outsider, because His laws are all unintelligible to them.

Witness this age!

We notice the general principles.

Scheme.

A. Towards the Past.

B. Towards the Future.

A. Towards the Past.

- i. Recognizes its Divinity.
"Ye have heard that it hath been said TO them."
- ii. No destruction - Unloosing - making void.
"No dot or tittle."
- iii. Fulfil. - that is to fill up. LAW + PROPHETS.
This by way of comprehension.
- iv. The principles of the old.
 - a. Divine sovereignty & human responsibility.
 - b. Divine - Human relation.
Consequent human inter-relation.

B. Towards the future.

Righteousness which exceeds.
He will deal with internal sources for the creation of externals.